HON'BLE SHRI G.S.SINGHVI, THE CHIEF JUSTICE

WRIT PETITION No.16875 of 1995

Between:

U.Ramulu

…Petitioner

AND

The Senior Divisional Manager, LIC, Divisional Office, S.D.Road, Secunderabad
and another

Respondents

ORDER

Counsel for petitioner : None

Counsel for respondents : Shri M.V.Suresh

24-10-2006

In this petition, the petitioner has prayed for issue of a mandamus to the respondents to regularise his services and pay him consequential monetary benefits.

Since no one has appeared for the petitioner, the writ petition is dismissed in default.

I may also mention that even if the learned counsel for the petitioner had appeared and argued the case, the writ petition would have been dismissed because;

i) the petitioner has not impleaded the employer namely Life Insurance Corporation of India as party respondent to the writ petition, and

ii) in view of the judgment of the Constitution Bench of the Supreme Court in Secretary, State of Karnataka and others Vs. Uma Devi and others[1], this Court cannot issue direction for regularisation of services of an employee, who had worked as daily wager with intermittent breaks.

For the aforestated reasons, the writ petition is dismissed.

G.S.SINGHVI, CJ
